Re: United States v. Okeifa John
20 Cr. 477 (ER)

Dear Judge Ramos:

I was substituted to represent Mr. John on March 31, 2021. The next pretrial conference in this matter is scheduled for June 11, 2021. I write now to respectfully request that at Mr. John's request, I be relieved as counsel in this matter and that new CJA counsel be assigned.

Since I have been assigned in this matter, I have endeavored to review the bulk of the discovery and meet virtually with Mr. John on several occasions. Currently, the defense is awaiting the results of a recent DNA swab. Nevertheless, Mr. John gets agitated when I fail to answer his emails quickly enough or meet with him more frequently. Mr. John has a right to regular communication with his attorney and I certainly do not begrudge him that expectation. However, right now I am extremely busy and with several trials on the horizon, I don't expect that my workload will be getting lighter any time soon. To be clear, I have no personal conflict with Mr. John or his case and I wish him the best of luck. However, he has certain expectations that right now, given my current caseload, I am simply not able to accommodate. Thus, for his sake as well as mine, I believe that the assignment of new counsel would be the best solution.

Accordingly, for the reasons stated above, I respectfully request to be relieved as counsel in this matter. I apologize for any inconvenience.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

/s/ Matthew J. Kluger
